Interpreting Images as Numbers

28 pixels

255 white

0 black

Flattening Images:

we can still use this flattened image as the input to a MLP.

Image normalization:

Typically done by subtracting the mean from each pixel and dividing the result by the std-dev, for each pixel.

In PyTorch → Normalize transformations